INVESTOR ACKNOWLEDGEMENT STATEMENT

By signing below, I/we acknowledge that I/we read and understood:

1.The Terms and Conditions of Term Investment Accounts with The Baptist Union of Queensland ABN 59 241 212 544 (Queensland Baptists);

2. in particular, the following important information contained in sub-Section 2 of the Terms and conditions:

Investment funds will be used to support the charitable purposes of Queensland Baptists, namely the funds will be lent to affiliated Baptist churches, ministers, other clergy, employees, aged care facilities, church worship centres, schools and community welfare facilities.

Queensland Baptists' Identification Statement under the 2016 ASIC Instrument may be viewed at www.baplink.org.au.

Queensland Baptists is required by law to notify investors that the investments and their offering is not subject to the usual protections for investors under the Corporations Act 2001(Cth) or regulation by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC).

Queensland Baptists does not hold an Australian financial services licence.

Queensland Baptists is required by law to notify investors that:
(a) the investment is only intended to attract investors whose primary purpose of making their investment is to support the charitable purposes of Queensland Baptists;
(b) investors may be unable to get some or all their money back when the investor expects or at all; and
(c) the investment is not comparable to investments with banks, finance companies or fund managers.

Neither Queensland Baptists (controlling entity) nor Baplink (the fund) is prudentially supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA). Therefore, an investor in the fund will not receive the benefit of the financial claims scheme or the depositor protection provisions in the Banking Act 1959. Investments in the fund are intended to be a means for investors to support the charitable purposes of the fund.
